34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: PRD 17/294 Ebenr Crosby Yeoman $1,000. to Sam'l N. Crosby Yeoman this lot with building (third lot from settler lot, Ballard Survey #36). House is documented in 1826 road tax book: Ebenr's (Sr.) + person(s) tax was 12.26 15 John Emery's lot 26.22. This must have been Ebenezer Jr who married Mrs Ruth Holbrook in 1825 (minister was Rev. Otis Briggs). The first (settler) Ebenezer died in 1797. Ebenezer seems to have moved away after his marriage & drops out of the tax lists. The Italianate changes to house were done by Sam'l Crosby or Moncena Miles (owner after 1876-82). Asbestos shingle breathes, so if the exterior is restorable; if interior is well preserved might be National Register eligible.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: This property earlier belongs to William Mann [Mann to S.B. Lane, 185/8, Apr. 1848] but if there was an earlier home, barn they are not mentioned in deeds. 186/512 [June, 1849] Lane to Kimball + Crane, price $800 for 35 a. tract. Both occupied premises when Kimball sold his half to Crane for $600, May 1863 [223/265] suggesting that present house was a recent improvement. Stylistically, these are appropriate dates for such an early Italianate house. The lot is described in deeds as being on the corner between Dr. Mann's + D.E. Flanders' gardens. On grounds of style Welch probably replaced the house around the turn of the century, but while the value was equivalent there is no notation in the tax records. 34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: The rear ell probably represents the location of the oldest structure; Cyrus may have built first a Cape Revival house in the place of the present side ell, and then an Italianate Gable-to-street house was built with the side ell being re-built at that time or remodeled to an Italianate appendage. Cyrus probably made the Italianate additions - when his executors sold to P.W. Ayer of Freedom, the farm and buildings brought $5500 (1873; 438/174). 34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: This was former Edward Kimball land. Means acquired from purchases at sale by Tax Collector (122/471). Means's son was named Kimball Means (7581/251 A.H. Means to Harriet Means + Kimball Means, 1903). See also 1092/406: Sale in 1943 by Executor of Harriet Means Savage's Will. Tax records are spotty. In A.H. Means's itemized list, 1843, no house. One is shown in his 1854 list ($800) Valuation. Intervening volumes lack itemized lists. Before removal of details it was probably Transitional Greek Revival - Italianate, probably ca. 1848-50.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: The house turns up in Southerd's tax list as Geo. Carey's after the Feb. 27, 1888 conveyance (581/140) but it's difficult to tell if it was replaced by one of vernacular Tate Italianate style with the pebblestone-faced foundation after the conveyance, or simply was built. Other deeds, tax records, don't pin it down precisely. See also 1116/243; 1059/428; 1131/42, etc. If built after 1888, it is the G.L. Southerd house.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: Original tract partly in Bangor. Tax records lost or help because years are those lacking adequate records. Was also the "Moulton farm" to 1844 & the "Billing Place" (Samuel 1849-1864). Referred to as "a certain Tenement" in Maxwell to Mitchell 43/34, so terminus ante quem established. See also PRD 9/69; 126/328; 149/377; 391/82; 602/454; 1262/334. Acceptable in a local district. An attempt to find out if the interior State Preservation Warrant/NR consideration was declined by owner.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: (Acquired 10/1/90) in Sept. 1848 from Joseph Cary, on the S. line of his lot (no buildings). In 1857 W+T. Cary had two stores and lots in the tax records, and PRD 393/161, 1869 shows Thomas Carey (sic) selling for $200. an undivided half part of the lot with all the buildings thereon to William. Ftescends in William's descendants until 1903 deed to Murray (732/377). On stylistic grounds it is the kid of transitional Greek Revival - Italianate house that would take from the 1850s in this area. Unfortunately, the tax records are spotty. Eligible in district. Possibly the Carys had stores in their houses?
