34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: Wilbur H. Emery's recollections provide date of complex. Deeds are confusing because there were so many off parcels sold from the former Ernest M. Miller Farm by W.H. Emery. As in the case of the W.H. Emery House, Western Ave. Map 99 lot 17B. The structures apparently predate the relevant deed. Barbershop retains all finishes, eligible in a district.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: PRD 185/203 Buchan Haskins of Bangor Merchant #235 parcel (25a) + another, undivided half of each, Dec. 17, 1845. Deed suggests house built in 1846 but lack of detailed tax records leaves date approximate. John Fifield homestead and 150 acres valued at $2,000. in 1857. Identified as J. Fifield homestead in 379/177, Edward P. & Hannah B. Fifield to James Miller, 1868 ($2300). See also 1958/148; 2162/31. House has been so completely remodeled & stripped of trim, that it is virtually styleless, beyond a certain basic form to contemporary Colonial Revival style. It may once have been Greek Revival or even Federal on the exterior.

Could be a Victor Hodgins design but also could be plan books of 1920s, eg. Aladdin [see 56 Ohio St. Bangor, Thompson, Survey of Structures, II [1988]. Chain of title broken between Whitmore & Dunton Jr., but removed from indices. See 367/513; 962/130; 1392/203; 1503/35; 3019/45. Tax records do not help. Since L.K. Stetson was an investor & speculator in real estate, many parcels he owned briefly were not held long enough to show up.

Smith paid taxes on it as early as 1829, perhaps earlier, but lack of itemized tax info-tories leaves exact date unknown. Cf. 709/265. 3913/261: Property has broken chain of title between John L. and Sumner in regard to the house but part of property. John L. Smith's deed pre-existed conveyance of its lot according to deed and that evidence. No longer eligible for any kind of listing because of alterations.

Just placement of chimney, basement slab & granite foundation facing suggest an early (pre-1850) good-quality cape. See PRD 551/144; 1613/315; 2194/503. Adjoining deeds have not been helpful nor have tax lists. Inman was a Newburgh resident according to the only deeds found in his name. Not eligible because of alterations.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: Surname records in #3 do not reveal name of Sarah Higgins's husband; however PRD 85/502 a poorly worded deed describing 5 acres on south side of town road which specifically mentions Seth Higgins (16/568, in 1844) may refer to this property. Chain of title broken. Identified by Sarah's nephew in her codicil to Simon Batchelder in 1867 (64/432) and seminary 1857 tax list: 50 acres land + bldgs, $750 (where she's called Sally?). 34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: PRD 39/424 (Apr 3, 1820) Joseph Pickard to Farrington first 50-acres (house lot), other land acquired subsequently. See also 145/217; 154/316 and 353; 217/414; 273/59 (to Batcheller); 364/174; 369/11. Much of this farm, disposed of in three parcels, is in Newburgh. Farrington's house was valued at $50. in 1821 and his barn at $75, a modest value, suggesting it was small + modest, perhaps the beginning of the cape? This property has been modified by such considerable additions that it is no longer eligible as a landmark. Source H45, 1821 tax inventory
