34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: Much original plaster, all original trim retained. Ell appears to be a Federal cape with Italianate interior detailing in old kitchen which was apparently moved to this location. Ivy completely obscures the northwesterly 2d story window. NR eligible. Thirteen stars for original Colonies on leaded glass of fanlight. It is just possible that the ell is the "House of Ferrier house" standing on the land agreed on the present house mentioned in p 300, HRD 5, Henry Welch to Elias Davis, Mar. 19, 1798. See also HRD 1, 423 and 7 p. 38; Penobscot Registry 8 p 96, full deed citations in National Register nomination.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: Broken chain of title before Myra Huntley to Daniel + Carolyn Brown, 1943 (1238/225) but restored through indices and tax records. Change in tax records between 1932 + 1933. In 1932 sold to Huntley per tax lists, called the "Gay Peasley Place" but that name not found, perhaps a tenant of Wilbert + Wilfred Clark of Bridgeport who conveyed to Huntley. In 1932 land valued at 400, bldg 200; in 1933 land 300, bldg 300. Since was the period of the Great Depression, change probably indicates new construction.

34. COMMENTS/SOURCES: Chain of title broken more than once. 1859 map identifies J. Knowles property, confirmed by 366/38, John Knowles to Benj. P. Knowles, 1865. An oral tradition in Curtis family narrated by present owner attributes present high style to "A Mr. Butts." Confirmed by Registry transactions in regard to house. A notation in 1869 tax list shows Butts owned "Taylor Place" $1,000 and had a half interest in J. Knowles including ½ Widow's Dower, $50. Butts sold interest apparently to Benj. Knowles who later conveyed it. See 372/404; 535/388; 645/281; 737/421, etc. National Register eligible,
